

THE EBERLYS FOR IRELAND

Dear Pastors, Churches, and Friends

Nov. 2008

On the Field Things are going so well for Kathy and me. We are just about settled in and getting our bearings as we drive now. Our week consists of door to door soul winning, handing out tracts on the street, working in the R.U. Ministry, preaching, discipling, ministering to people in the church and I am a student in the Cork Bible Institute. Busy is another word for serving the Lord. Our days are occupied with people which means personal contact and serving. This is why God brought us to Ireland I am sure. The need in Ireland is individual involvement with a people trusting in religious experiences, suffering from drunkenness, drug addiction, and the answer is the gospel one soul at a time.

I have begun a discipleship with a new believer and am very excited at what the Lord will do. I shouldn't have to tell you how important it is to take new believers aside and teach them systematically the Word of God. Please pray for this man Lawrence; we never know what the Lord wants to do with each person.

We are looking forward to presenting Christmas on the streets of Cork city on the 13th, through song and tract distribution. Our Cantata will be presented on the 21st and we look forward to many visitors. The main song "Born to Die" was written by Craig Ledbetter and the music by John Mahony. It is our focus to get people to see past just the manger to Calvary which was the real reason He came.

Blessings It is with joy that I can tell you we have been given a year from the immigration officials. Though that may not sound like something to rave about, in this world we live in today it is a blessing from the Lord. We breezed through with flying colors and I am glad I waited on the Lord to retire before starting deputation, it made all the difference. Since missionaries are having such a hard time these days "staying" in Ireland Kathy and I were looked at as a retired couple, and we are. Praise the Lord, He knows the future!

Prayer Requests Believe it or not we still have not received our furniture. It is a long story so suffice it to say we are told now it will be here in two weeks. The twin beds on the floor are still comfortable though, after a long day. Also please pray for grand mom missing her grand children. I do too. This is our first Christmas away from our family. I think it is very natural to have this emotion but we are fine knowing this is God's will. Continue in prayer for Lawrence and Jocelyn, two recently saved and need to grow.

Thank you A big thank you to Security Baptist Church in Rock Hill, SC; Red Lion Bible Church in Red Lion, Penna.; and Harvest Baptist Church in Lugoff, SC. for taking us on for support. We also are thrilled that our friends Ken and Sue Kowalski have seen fit to invest in us to reach Irish souls with the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. I also want to thank our sending church and mission board for standing with us through prayers and support. Have a great CHRISTmas and remember the reason He came and was born that night in a manger. He was Born to Die! Matt.1:21 His servants and your friends Dan and Kathy Eberly

Mark 16:15 And he said unto them, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature."
