

THE EBERLY'S FOR IRELAND

Dear Pastors, Churches, and Fiends

July 2008

Just the Facts Wow! July was a blur as we only have two months left before we leave for the field. We were in 9 churches this month and two more took us on for support. The driving was tedious as we put 4,916 miles behind us. With no let up on fuel prices and some car repairs we got punched in the gut this month financially but the Lord wonderfully meets every need. Our support level is at 81%.

Looking Ahead We are looking forward to the 12 meetings scheduled for August. Most of our time will be spent in upstate New York, with a stop in Massachusetts, and South Carolina. We are looking forward to what the Lord will do as we trust Him to raise our support and meet our needs. May I say God has never failed me and He has never failed you either. He is to be trusted because He is always Faithful.

Looking Back Many churches remember the Eberly's as the "Penny Missionaries." We have tried to be an encouragement to pastors and other fellow believers, by telling them of their value to God. God wants to use the each and every one of us and we should not think ourselves unimportant in God's plan. The penny is most times looked at as having no real value and we like to remind everyone that pennies are inscribed with the name of "God", and our godly 16th president (Abraham Lincoln), and a missionary. Do you know where or who? See below *answer!

Blessings The Lord was so Wonderful again to us in our driving, meetings and answers to prayers. Again the altar responses were good as people are seeing their need to be missionaries at home. One woman rededicated her life to the Lord. We also had the privilege to lead Mary (Kathy's niece) to the Lord Jesus Christ. Kathy mentioned on our trip to South Carolina that "we must needs go through Charlotte" and it paid off to the Glory of God. Thank you to Jim Oberlham of Mission Baptist Church in Blue Ash, Ohio for the bibles and resources sent to me to go to Ireland. What an important ministry (Northland Bible Ministries) this is as they distribute the Word of God around the world.

Prayer Requests Please pray for Mary Figueroa to grow in the Lord. Pray for our support to miraculously be achieved as only the Lord can supply. We are still in need of about 800.00 dollars a month to reach our goal of a modest support level. Pray for house to sell and the Lord to provide the funds for the move to Ireland. Also, please pray for my brother Ron to be saved and Kathy's brother Johnny.

read John 20:21 Now look at the back of the penny and realize you are "one cent". Don't forget Mark 16:15
