

Bible Baptist Church of Ballincollig

Dear Pastors, Churches, and Friends

Aug. 2009

Where has the summer gone? Here in Ireland fall comes even more quickly. The nights are becoming cooler by far and the days are noticeably shorter and not as warm. The work hasn't changed though and we continue into the changing seasons looking for the lost. Our Bible Clubs ended with two girls saved. We had a wonderful short program on Aug.30th to encourage the church and reestablish the importance of seeking and teaching the young people. We averaged about 26 children per week and had a high of 34. Our theme was "The Armor of God."

We had ourselves a wonderful time learning about how to fight the wiles of the devil. I had the best group of helpers and it made for a great summer outreach

As I write this letter Pastor Craig is probably boarding a plane with his family to return from a four month furlough. The family has been greatly missed and we will all be there for their arrival tomorrow at Cork airport. The ship kept sailing and on course while Bro. Ledbetter was away and that is a tribute to the people and the foundation that was laid. During his furlough there were people saved, baptized and discipled. Praise the Lord for manifold blessings.

On another front we are moving to a house about 15 minutes out of Ballincollig in a town called Dripsey. The house is exactly what my wife had prayed for to use for the Lord; with a bigger kitchen and living room to have people over. I want to add that having more than one bathroom will be my dream. Oh, the horror of sharing a bathroom with a woman. Needless to say though we cannot buy, but we are pleased to rent and trust the Lord to direct in the future.

Finally I have prayer requests that are of urgency. They are Silas Boaz Blackburn, a little 2 year old with stage 4 cancer. Bro. Homer Smith's continuing rehabilitation and his wife Miss Ellie now has been diagnosed with cancer and has begun treatments. Homer Smith is the founder of Word for the World Baptist Ministries. Please pray also for Rudy Stembidge and his family as they not only care for these two precious souls, their family, but also the needs of the missionaries in 25 countries around the world.
