

THE EBERLY'S FOR IRELAND

Dear Pastors, Churches, and Fiends

May/June 2008

Just the Facts I will be sending my prayer letters out every month in the future so as to keep everyone abreast of our progress getting to the field and when we arrive. We have been in 16 churches and our last Missionary School and conference with Word for the World Baptist Ministries. The driving has been blessed of God with no incidents in 6,293 miles these past two months. Five new churches have taken us on for support and have raised us to approx. 80% support level. The fact is that the Lord is blessing the Eberly's and we praise His lovingkindness toward us.

Looking Ahead I can only thank the Lord for the great news. We are leaving for the field on Sept. 30th. We have got our tickets and we are trusting the Lord to sell our home. My heart along with my wife's is so longing to begin the work God has called us to. We have absolutely loved our deputation (we still have approx.30 churches left) and wouldn't trade the experiences we have encountered for anything this world could offer. We believe these remaining churches are exactly where the Lord wants us. We hope to finish strong and encouraged in the Lord to fight the good fight, even on the deputation trail.

Looking Back So many people have been a help to us and forgive me if your name is not written down but it is in heaven; my pastor William Gaul, Dr. Bill Allison, Dr. Homer Smith, the staff at WFTWBM, my friends Pastor Tom Krampert and Ken Kowalski. I will give a special thank you to Pastor Craig Ledbetter my friend who we will be ministering with in Ireland. Thank you all for helping my wife and I along the way and to the field.

Blessings We thank the Lord for the churches who have taken us on for support. We had a wonderful time with our friends Ken and Sue Kowalski who accompanied us on our trip to our last Missionary Candidate School/Conference. I would thank Ken and Sue for their help as they came with us to four meetings we had in Georgia during the conference. Ken carried equipment in and out and Sue sang a familiar hymn (How Great thou Art) with an Irish slant to the words. They were truly a blessing and we thank them for their fellowship and friendship.

Prayer Requests Please pray with us for Ireland and the great need of people held in the grip of a vain religion and hearts that grow colder and colder to the things of God. We need prayer and guidance to sell our home, and also, as we seek to find and fund an international moving company. Please pray with my wife and me for our older brothers to be saved. My brother's name is Ron and my wife's brother is Johnny. Ps.126:6 We have witnessed to them and will continue to, but we ask for a greater burden. His servants Dan and Kathy Eberly John 12:24
